THANKS AND UPDATES BY GAYLE SWANBECK

More storage space has been created both upstairs and downstairs. The front hallway entry to the classroom, now has shelves to hold our magazines for collage and references, as well as craft supplies. These shelves, replacing a large bookcase, also open up access to the storage area beneath the stairs. This rather large space will be used to store fans and heaters when not in use. Upstairs, Josh also removed and capped the sink, toilet, and claw-foot bathtub that has not been needed since the days that WomanKraft also had a one room B & B for artists, guests and travelers. This space will now be a spacious storage area for a variety of display units we use in the gallery. Josh also solved an old plumbing problem, by installing a vent for the gallery's bathroom toilet. This, along with fashioning a custom goose-neck for the sink, has solved the sewer gas odor we've sometimes had to endure, especially during our rainy season. It's fixed and the smell will not be missed. One leak was discovered after two days of rain from Mexico's hurricane Newton. Josh got right on it, and all repairs were completed.

Grace has been meticulously sorting through old files of hard copy, much of which is no longer necessary to keep. Files from the late 70's to 2006, are being culled. A side to all this tedious work is finding bits and pieces of the 42 year long life of our non-profit art's organization. Go girl!

All through these last four months, we have continued to see strong arts sales, new and renewed memberships, strong classroom attendance, (please check out the new workshops and sign up early) a beautiful and current website, strong publicity, great attendance, both old and new artists displayed, strong exhibits, gifts from our wishlist arriving, and donations of financial support growing. So many blessings and still every day finds us working to maintain this positive growth. Taxes go up, insurance was just raised another 10%, utility rates go up, food for receptions and events, supplies, all rising. So please keep us in your thoughts, donate as you can, small or large, attend events and continue spreading the word. Costly ads can never do what personal contact can; create a grassroots organization that is moving into its 43rd year. Thanks also goes out to all you folks who brought in food donations for the Community Food Bank. We know we are blessed by all the people who have nourished WomanKraft through the decades, and we thank you from the bottom of our hearts. You know who you are, you very special people.

In Love and Gratitude, Gayle Swanbeck

DIRECTOR'S THANKS BY ZOE RHYNE

September/October's 'Water, Water Everywhere' show quenched our thirst for beautiful, moisturizing art! As usual, the talent leaked out from all over, and the gallery walls were drenched with so many amazing perspectives of this powerful element. An enormous river of thank you to everyone who helped make this lovely show such a success! Artists, volunteers, attendees, buyers, thank you all!

Our water show flowed into the 2016 'Holiday Bazaar' in what seemed like the blink of an eye. Suddenly the gallery is filled with every color, shape and size you can think of! Our tradition of providing the community with a place to buy beautiful, one of a kind gifts at affordable prices continues. Not only is our selection incredible and varied, all sales are supporting local business, non-profits, and artists. What could be better? The 'Holiday Bazaar' is so much fun, every wall and corner is filled with all manner of unique gift ideas many putting to use items in ways you may never have considered. We are so lucky to be surrounded by such talent. Thank you, thank you, to everyone who helped make these shows possible: Gayle Swanbeck, Grace Rhyne, Josh Smith, Tony Di Angelis, Nancy Martin, Barbara Achord, Linda Hill, and so many more.

The gallery will be closed for the month of January for some love, paint, and some downtime. And of course, to host our bi-annual RUMMAGE SALE! Yet another unique opportunity to support WomanKraft, and score some awesome affordable stuff! Don't miss it, January 20 + 21, 8am - 4pm. (For more information on the rummage sale, see page 12.)

After January we'll spring right back into the swing of things with the all new exhibit, 'Flights of Fantasy'. This show should highlight the magic and mystery that surrounds us everyday. Images and themes from our past and from our imaginations.. Artists! Come fly with me into the land of unicorns, dragons, goddesses, myths and legends! Day dreams! Whims and wishes! I cannot wait to see what we come up with. There is no restriction in media or pricing for this one, and please feel free to call me with questions or to make an appointment, (520) 629-9976 EXT. 3. Remember, deadline to call is January 21. So don't wait!

SUITE NEWS

A great big thank you goes out to Ellen Parrish, of Salt Lake City, Utah, for her very generous donation of the Adobe Creative Cloud Suite. This program astronomically helps us to use our new computer to its maximum capacity, and helps Grace to maintain our ever more lovely graphic design and online presence, as well as archive important photo documentation of the goings on at WomanKraft. As a non-profit, WomanKraft relies on the generosity of our community for so much. Thank you for making this possible for us. May your generosity come back to you ten-fold.

CASTLE BIRTHDAY

Our 2nd reception in December 2016 for the Holiday Bazaar doubled as a birthday party for our beautiful building! Our 1918 Queen Ann Victorian “castle” celebrated her 99th year of existence! Doesn’t she look fabulous? With over 75 attendees, delicious homemade desserts provided by Zoe Rhyne and Ann Pattison, food and drink, all in a surrounding of beautiful art, it was a great night. Thank you everybody!

December in fact, marks many exciting anniversaries for WomanKraft. Not only is our building turning 99, but we celebrate the ownership of said property for 26 years. That’s right, in 1991 with little money and big dreams, WomanKraft purchased the building still being used today when it was subject to be condemned. To say it was a labor of love would be the understatement of the year, (and what a year). Now, on a lovey side, 26 years later, we are just under 6 months of owning the building outright - We think there’ll be a party.. woo! paying off the mortgage is a huge goal WomanKraft has been working towards for a long time. Another anniversary in December is the birth of WomanKraft herself, founded in 1974, successfully fulfilling the mission of claiming, validating, and empowering women artists and under-represented groups, now for 42 years!!

99 is an impressive feat, and 100 is going to be huge! For her 100th year, we would love to be able to give our building a fresh, much needed paint job! We would like to use the same colors we’ve always had, Buttercup Yellow and Victorian Plum. It’s easy to say, and very hard to do. The castle will need various repairs and some maintenance before the painting, patching, sanding and prepping... a lot of work will be needed. And, to accomplish this work, we will be needing scaffolding for our towering two-story beauty! All of this is going to take a lot of time, and a lot of money... If you would like to donate anything, time or money or supplies, please let us know. Research and inquiry will be needed to see if we can get any corporate donations for materials. If this sounds like something you could help us with, please do not hesitate to contact us! We would love to have any sort of help, Remember, WomanKraft is a 501 (c) 3 non-profit, and any donations you make are tax deductible. This particular non-profit is run 100% by volunteers - that means that for the 42nd year in existence, WomanKraft will rely on passionate individuals who want to make an impact on our community by donating their time and effort so WomanKraft can continue to provide exceptional programming free and open to the public all year round.

Our building provides us with so much, the space and the means to accomplish everything we do, the Gallery, the School of the Arts, the Sanctuary All Natural Hair and Body Salon, 6 rented artist studios, storage, performance space, everything! Let’s show our appreciation, and work on restoring ‘The Castle’ at 388 S. Stone to her most glorious! To get in touch about working on this project, please call (520)629-9976.

A BIG, SPARKLY THANK YOU FROM THE SCHOOL OF THE ARTS

Our School of the arts has recently been donated a whole bunch extra awesome goodies. Boxes and boxes of beads, baubles, jewels, feathers, ribbons, stamps, papers! It was splendid. A special thank you to Susan Danos, Shellie Montgomery, and Robin Sweet. You ladies have added to our collection of art supplies and made so many students happy for a long time to come. Thank you to everyone who donates to WomanKraft, your generosity creates this bounty and opportunity for so many people. Thank you!

SAYING SO LONG

Paul Brunelle and Dan Reichel have tendered their resignations from our board and Paul will no longer be able to docent the gallery on Wednesdays. We thank you Paul, for all your hours and energy donated to WomanKraft and our community. Like many folks, the overwhelming time it takes to help run a non-profit organization (in this case Speak the Speech Theatre Company) often eliminates the ability to work at another. We wish you continued success with the theater company, may it grow and be successful. Taking over the Wednesday docent position will be Josh Smith, already a contributing artist member, board member, and WomanKraft handyman extraordinaire. Thank you Josh, for stepping up to help create a seamless transition.

THE GLOO FACTORY

The Gloo Factory is a local business WomanKraft would like to encourage all friends to consider for future printing needs. We are hoping to get a class started in screen printing with the Gloo Factory, so keep a look out for exciting new class opportunities through our School of the Arts, and remember to SUPPORT LOCAL!
