An anonymous Board Member for a $3,000 donation in memory of Linn Lane, Pamela Asherah, and Mimi Stern.

Thanks go to Jennifer Wilson for her beautiful glass beads and pendants donated for use in future School of the Arts workshops.

Thanks to Richard Kestler for donating to our herstorical archives, a beautiful artwork created by and in memory of Carol Kestler: "Bodecia's Bodice". In love and gratitude, Gayle Thanks also go out to the estate of Mimi Stern for donating so much to WomanKraft's January rummage sale and the School of the Arts. Many people donate constantly to us, and it may seem like it doesn't matter that much, but I need to correct this. Every gift of cash, time, and products makes our lives so much easier, our supply boxes full and workshops and repairs flowing. A big check through the mail, a dollar dropped in the food donation baskets at an event, and every denomination in between have let us continue on year after year, decade after decade growth. We have people who bring us newspaper to cover our School of the Arts tables, yogurt containers to mix resin in, cottage cheese containers to clean paint brushes in, broken jewelry to use in workshops, leftover building supplies that we can make use of... not only does it hold with our belief of recycling everything possible, but it saves us so much money and time. So never think the little things don't make a big difference because all gifts do. Need an idea? Please check out our gift idea list on page 19. Finally, our last thanks go out to the people who've asked us not to use their names, to make a fuss. I hope the universe is blessing you with great kindness. You know how you are, and we always remember.

UPDATES:

A lot has been done. All the trim and the building itself has been finished on the West side of the building, including the metal fire escape and hand rails. New clear coat has also been applied. Zoe and Grace's upstairs storage room had the old ceiling torn down and a new one put in with all patching and painting included.

NEWS & COMMENTS

The gallery bathroom toilet's water tank was replaced, and both Studio 103 and 102 had handicap accessible toilets installed with accompanying floor repairs. A metal storage bin, on rollers, for kitchen dry goods was built by Josh to keep all critters big and small from finding food. He's also completed an all metal storage shed to house our outdoor tools.

Our new tool shed

Indoor storage is at a premium so it's wonderful to finally have this project completed. It looks great, is weatherproof, termite free, and secure.

Storage shelves have also been built into Studio 103 and similar work has begun in the building's tool room.

After the August rummage fair happened, deep cleaning went on as well as the usual wall repairs, painting, and floor treatments. The handrail on the handicap accessible ramp leading to our back door has been repainted and sealed to match our fresh paint perfectly. The back door of the gallery was also refinished. Tree trimming took place, tending the lemon tree, driveway overgrowth, and general tree care. We'll be hiring a tree trimming company to cut back our trees so that the house can continue to be painted. We give another huge thank you to the people donating so much money to help repair, renovate, and maintain this beautiful space. And to Josh Smith for such excellent and dedicated work skillfully completing these many many projects. We can't thank you enough.

THE AUGUST RUMMAGE SALE

This was our most financially successful rummage sale yet. Pre-sales came in at $291.50, the sale itself earned $1860. The Swapmeet another $355.50! and final remnant sales of $100. Totaled out at $2,607. Thank you for your time and labor: Zoe and Grace Rhyne, Josh Smith, Gayle Swanbeck, Tony Di Angelis, Lydia Phillips, Darlene Kirk, Nancy Martin, Gerrie Young, Jonathan Cervera, Paul Rhyne, Joy Holdread, Laura Leighton, Shari Murphy, Mary Lou Griggs, Gerrie Young, Gwen Moore, Jackie Weiss, Anissa Maria, Gustavo Rivera, Eddika Shestko, Genesis Arizmendi and Meleena Karger with Ask Women of Tucson, and Linda Hill and everyone else who made it possible, and all you generous donors and smart shoppers for your support! Be sure to check out the info on the upcoming sale on page 15!

POINTS OF INTEREST

Recently, I've needed some specific services and want to pass along this info. Rising Medical (886-7700) rents and sells home medical equipment and supplies at very affordable rates compared to my research. Also JK Baty mobile notary has been a real help when I've been unable to make the trip myself. Again, so very affordable, prompt, and a nice man. (576-8620) Support local businesses when you can.

In love and gratitude, Gayle

DIRECTOR THANKS BY ZOE RHYNE

Somehow, another 4 months have come and gone already, and it's time for another Castle Voice! Since last we spoke, a whole rummage sale happened, and we have seen 2 exhibits come and go! The rummage sale, as ever, was a huge and awesome success!

NEWS & COMMENTS

We are so lucky to have such a generous community! Thank you to everyone who donated items and/or time, thank you to all who came by and bought something, and especially thank you to all our strong and amazing volunteers for helping set up, un-pack, re-pack, and clean up! We couldn't do it without you! Crazy as it sounds, our next rummage sale will be here in no time!

January is upon us, and with it another excellent opportunity to support WomanKraft! Don't miss it! JANUARY 18TH AND 19TH, 8AM TO 4 PM. Please call (520)629-9976 X1 to schedule volunteer hours with us!!

After the rummage sale, our glorious building is transformed into a gallery once again. It's amazing what paint and a little art will do! September through October's exhibit was called "Reflections" and truly it reflected the talent of Tucson! Once again the theme was thoroughly explored and we had art of all kinds! It is so much fun to witness all this creativity, and wonderful to constantly be introduced to new ways of looking at things! From paintings of childhood memories to kaleidoscopes we really had it all! Thank you so much to all artists and patrons! It would take quite a show to follow that one, and The Holiday Bazaar certainly delivered! This great traditions was started here at WomanKraft 28 years ago, and has only gotten better with age! With the idea being to provide people a place to buy gifts for the Holidays while supporting local non-profits, artists and women, the requirements for this show was that all art must range for sale from $1 to $100. This opens up the market for everyone to support, and find one of a kind gifts for everyone in their lives, at an affordable price. The Holiday Bazaar is fun in that the "theme" is the price range, which means the art can be anything! And what variety we had! Paintings and photographs and stickers and jewelry and miniatures and wreaths and and and! Truly spectacular. Another giant heartfelt thank you to all the artists who shared their work with us, and to everyone who came by and supported WomanKraft! Thank you! And as always, an extra special super thank you to the all volunteer hanging crew. You guys are the best.

It's so much fun to look ahead and see the upcoming shows. I'm excited to see where we go for our February and March show, "Getting Into Shapes"! Once again, as the "theme" is the shape of art, that leaves the medium and subject matter entirely up to you! I know there are some fantastic pieces out there, I can't wait to see them!

Please don't hesitate to call me for an appointment or to answer any questions you may have! (520)629-9976 X 3)

Thanks for everything! -Zoe

Back by popular demand, WomanKraft is proud to present a collaboration with the Esperanza Dance Project!! The Esperanza Dance Project (EDP), is a local modern dance troupe and non-profit organization, that travels to high schools and community events with a mission to “eradicate stigma, secrecy and shame associated with childhood sexual violence” through a multimedia performance piece entitled “House of Hope”.

MIRIAM STERN 1952 - 2018

With regret WomanKraft acknowledges the passing of longtime supporter and patron of the arts, Mimi Stern.

Mimi collected not only WomanKraft artists but supported contemporary artists across the States. She was one of the first supporters to buy art she saw on our e-mail announcements of gallery shows! Mimi was also always willing to support a "techy" need and funded our digital projector when we needed it. She enjoyed our Advanced Tie Dye Workshops and created the fabulous shirts that earned raves when she wore them.

A Celebration of Mimi's Life was held at board member Nancy Martin's house on 11/11/18 with 50 friends attending including representatives from WomanKraft and her other favorite causes, Antigone Books and the U of A Women's Basketball Team.

Farewell Good Friend.

Miriam Stern, know as Mimi, took a degree in Physical Education and moved to Tucson in 1974. She taught and coached and practiced other careers as a home handy person, a farrier and a caterer, always maintaining her interest in fine woodworking.

She was a #1 supporter of the U of A Women's basketball team, the LGBT Youth Center, WomanKraft Center for the Arts and Antigone Books. She is survived by her sister Ruth Geis (Jim) of Chicago, niece Sarah Geis, and a legion of dear friends.
